The Sky's the Limit:

A Celebration of the History of Black Achievement in Aviation

Art Contest

LOUISVILLE MUHAMMAD ALI INTERNATIONAL AIRPORT

BOWMAN FIELD LOU 1919

WHO: All Students in Grades K-12

WHAT: An art contest to mark Black History Month related to Black Achievement in Aviation. Inspired by the exhibit, "The Sky's the Limit: A Celebration of the History of Black Achievement in Aviation" at Louisville Muhammad Ali International Airport, students are encouraged to submit their own artwork (8-1/2" x 11") that shows what this means to them.
Need inspiration? Click here to view last year's exhibit at SDF

PRIZES: YES! One winner will be selected from the following categories: Grades K-2, Grades 3-5, Grades 6-8 and Grades 9-12. The winners' work will be on display as part of the exhibit at Bowman Field and will also be featured on Louisville Muhammad Ali International Airport's social media.
A grand prize winner will receive a complimentary scholarship to the 2023 Louisville Aviation Camp at Bowman Field in July 2023. (Note: Aviation camp participants must be at least 10-years-old.)

WHEN: Submissions are due by Friday, February 23, 2024.
Submissions accepted Monday - Friday from 8:30 a.m. - 4:30 p.m. at:
Louisville Regional Airport Authority
Attn: Public Relations
Louisville Muhammad Ali international Airport (SDF)
700 Administration Drive
Louisville, KY 40209

Questions? Contact Kim Pemberton at (502) 363-8506
or Kim.Pemberton@FlyLouisville.com

The Sky's the Limit:
A Celebration of the History of Black Achievement in Aviation
Past Winners

2022 Winner

2023 Winner