ExpressJet Airlines Launches First Flights; Offers Nonstop Jet Service to Kansas City and Raleigh

Louisville, KY (May 7, 2007)– ExpressJet Airlines today launched twice daily non-stop jet service from Louisville to Kansas City, MO, and Raleigh-Durham, NC.

“ExpressJet’s new service will provide direct links to two of Louisville’s top 20 travel destinations,” Louisville Mayor Jerry Abramson said. “With ExpressJet’s new flights, Louisville International will offer non-stop service to 18 of its top 20 travel destinations -- greatly expanding travel options and enhancing convenience for our fliers.”

Airport Director Skip Miller added, “In February 2007, ExpressJet Airlines named Louisville as one of 24 launch cities for its new scheduled air service utilizing a young fleet of fuel-efficient Embraer 145 aircraft. Offering convenient nonstop flights, aircraft configured with no middle seats, over 100 channels of free XM Satellite radio®, complimentary snacks and full service meals on longer flights ExpressJet provides the convenient connections our customers have asked for.”

ExpressJet schedules and fares are available for sale through travel agencies, www.xjet.com and most online distributors.
