Miller Elected First Vice Chair of Kentuckians for Better Transportation Board

Louisville, KY (February 7, 2008)—The Board of Directors of Kentuckians for Better Transportation (KBT) recently elected Charles T. “Skip” Miller, Executive Director of the Louisville Regional Airport Authority, as First Vice Chair.

KBT works with opinion leaders on the local, regional, state and national levels to encourage developing and maintaining a safe, interconnecting transportation system with adequate highway, airport, rail, river port, and public transit to enhance economic growth.

The alliance includes industry, business, chambers of commerce, local governments and development agencies, and representatives of all modes of transportation—air, highway, public transit, rail and waterway.
