Skip Miller Elected Chairman of Kentuckians for Better Transportation

Louisville, KY (February 2, 2009)— Charles T. "Skip" Miller, Executive Director of the Louisville Regional Airport Authority, was recently elected chair of Kentuckians for Better Transportation (KBT). He succeeds Greg Hensley, Hinkle Contracting Corporation of Louisville.

Other officers are first vice chair, Mark Willis, Lexington, Burgess & Niple, Inc.; second vice chair, Luther Deaton, Jr., Lexington, Central Bank & Trust Co.; secretary, Monty Boyd, Louisville, Wayne Supply Co.; treasurer, Charles Lovorn, Frankfort, Kentucky Association of Highway Contractors; and director at large, David Haydon, Bardstown, Nally & Haydon, LLC.

KBT works with opinion leaders on the local, regional, state and national levels to encourage the development and maintenance of a safe, interconnecting transportation system with adequate highway, airport, rail, riverport, and public transit interface to enhance future economic growth. The alliance includes industry, business, chambers of commerce, local governments and development agencies, and representatives of all modes of transportation—air, highway, public transit, rail and waterway.
