American Airlines Announces Daily Nonstop Service to New York/LaGuardia

Louisville, KY (February 8, 2016)–American Airlines has announced new nonstop jet service from Louisville to New York’s LaGuardia Airport. Beginning June 2, 2016, the airline will offer one, daily flight using 50-seat Canadair regional jet aircraft.

“Expanding our access to the nation’s major business centers has been a core component of the airport’s marketing efforts and we applaud American Airlines for their significant investment in Louisville. The business community has asked for more seats to New York and we are confident that local companies will find this additional capacity beneficial”, said Skip Miller, Executive Director for Louisville International Airport.
