Louisville International Airport to Host Airport Jobs Fair Companies Recruiting to Fill Positions Airport-Wide

Louisville, KY (September 6, 2016) – Louisville International Airport is adding new shops, restaurants and services and now is the time to let your career take flight. Thanks to the ongoing Terminal Enhancement Project, more than 15 companies that operate at the airport are hiring for new full- and part-time positions to serve the more than 3.5 million customers who travel through the facility each year. The positions are airport-wide and include a diverse array of trades, skills and talent.

To learn more about these positions, the public is invited to the Airport Jobs Fair. Attendees will be able to meet with members of the airport business community and learn about the variety of employment opportunities offered by the Louisville Regional Airport Authority, airlines, car rental companies, restaurants, retail shops, TSA and many more.

Positions being recruited include:

administrative positions, aircraft mechanics, airline agents, baggage handlers, baristas, bartenders, cashiers, cooks, customer service positions, custodians, dispatchers, drivers, flight attendants, janitors, management trainees, pilots, ramp agents, rental sales agents, security officers, servers, vehicle service agents, vehicle mechanics and many more.
