Celebrate New Low Fare Service with New Low Cost Parking Option

LOUISVILLE, KY (April 3, 2018) – Allegiant today announced new daily nonstop service between Louisville International Airport (SDF) and Jacksonville International Airport (JAX) beginning Friday, June 8, 2018. The airline will operate the flight using a 177-seat Airbus 320 aircraft. Jacksonville is the twelfth new low fare route added from Louisville in the last 12 months, bringing the airport’s nonstop service to a record of 31 destinations.

To make the next trip more inviting, Louisville International Airport now offers a lower-cost, long-term parking option. Just in time for Spring Break, travelers can enjoy a special $8 daily rate when parking in our convenient Credit Card Only lot. This convenient lot is located just steps away from the terminal and will offer the lowest close-in airport daily parking rate in the region.

“Whether you want to reach the beach, see the mountains, explore the desert or visit your favorite amusement park, our new flights make that possible,” said Dan Mann, Executive Director of the Louisville Regional Airport Authority. “Now, with low fares and our new low-cost parking option, it’s more affordable too.”

The special $8 daily rate is only offered in the Credit Card Only parking lot. No other discounts apply. For more information visit, www.FlyLouisville.com.

Louisville International Airport is served by seven airlines offering flights to 31 nonstop destinations including 18 of the region’s top 20 domestic markets. With just one stop, travelers from across the region can reach 170 international destinations in 81 countries on six continents. Let’s Go!
